BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Andrew R. Comiter is an associate of the regional tax law firm Comiter, Singer, Baseman & Braun, LLP. Andrew received his B.S. in Accounting from the University of Florida in 2003, a Masters of Taxation from Florida Atlantic University in 2004, and a J.D. with honors from the University of Florida Levin College of law in 2008 with a Certificate in Estates and Trusts Practice. He went on to receive his LL.M. in Taxation from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in 2009.

As a student at the University of Florida, Andrew served three terms as President of Florida Blue Key and was inducted into the University of Florida Hall of Fame in 2007. He also served as a Justice on the Student Body Honor Court, Senator in the Student Senate, and Chancellor of the Tau Alpha Chapter of Tau Epsilon Phi Fraternity. Andrew was the recipient of the 2008 Levin College of Law Community Service Student of the Year Award.

Andrew currently serves as a Director for the O'Connell Society, Inc. and is a member of the Law School Alumni Council for the University of Florida Levin College of Law. He is also a member of the inaugural group of the Emerging Leadership Project, a collaboration between the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County's Business & Professions Department and the Mandel Center for Excellence in Leadership.

The focus of Andrew's practice is federal taxation of partnerships, s-corporations, and limited liability companies; business transactions; income and estate tax planning; probate; and trust, estate and guardianship litigation. Andrew is a member of the Florida Bar since 2009 and is a member of the Tax; Real Property, Probate & Trust Law; and Business Law Sections of the Florida Bar. Andrew is the Business Law Section representative to the Family Trust Company Subcommittee of the Florida Bar Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section.
